

Universitatea Alexandru Ioan Cuza, Iași
Centre for Social Management and Community Development

in cooperation with

The European Network of Masters of Children's Rights (ENMCR)
and

Romanian National Authority for Scientific Research

organise

THE FIRST EUROPEAN CONFERENCE

20-21 July, 2007

Children's Right to Education and Information in EU: Strategies for Prevention of Social and Digital Exclusion within the Knowledge Society

ANNOUNCEMENT AND CALL FOR PAPERS

Chair of the Conference: Prof.Dr. Doina Balahur

Programme Committee:

Doina Balahur, Paul Balahur, Rebecca Budde, Ferran Casas, Lourdes Gaitan, Manfred Liebel, Virginia Morrow, Birgitta Qvarsell, Maria Roth, Kay Tisdall.

The conference is structured around four sessions that will debate aspects related to children's rights at education and information in European Union within the Knowledge Society.

- Children's Rights to Education and Information in the Knowledge Society.
- Changes in professional education in the Knowledge Society. Digital learning and the virtual classroom.
- Non-conventional educational and motivational strategies for the stimulation of the scientific research.
- Preventing social and digital exclusion.

We welcome applications from researchers, academics, students, practitioners, activists in the field of children's rights issues in the Knowledge Society.

Deadline for paper proposals (abstracts of 500 words) should be addressed to Doina Balahur (dbalahur@uaic.ro; doina_balahur@yahoo.com) no later than 25 of June, 2007.

Full text of the papers for the Conference book should be addressed to Doina Balahur (dbalahur@uaic.ro; doina_balahur@yahoo.com) no later than 10 of July, 2007.

Registration form, programme and practical information:
on the website of the Centre for Social Management and Community Development:
www.csmcd.uaic.ro/childconference