

Dear colleagues,

it is my pleasure to invite you to the university's third International Week from June 26 to June 30, 2017. We have planned more than 40 events for students, researchers and staff ranging from information sessions and panel discussions to a summer reception for international guest researchers. The central event venue will be the Seminarzentrum at Silberlaube. We offer multiple information and professional training sessions regarding funding opportunities, specific programs and regions. The heads of our seven liaison offices will be on campus during this week and will be available for one-on-one meetings.

I would like to draw your attention especially to the opening event on Monday, June 26, 2017 at 4 pm at the Henry Ford Building, Lecture Hall A. Together with Professor Liviu Matei, Provost and Pro-Rector at Central European University (CEU) in Budapest, we will discuss academic freedom under the title University and Public Policy: Truth and Freedom.
